

Colleen Daniels -Organiser and Manager of Salsa Dance Central

Colleen Daniels is a well recognised and celebrated Berkshire/London based Salsa professional who has taught and performed world wide

She possesses a truly unique blend of style, flavour, technique and sheer charisma on both the dance floor and on stage.

She is known as much for her totally infectious personality as she is for her abilities as a dancer, instructor, choreographer and performer.

Specialising in ladies' styling and body movement; Colleen is available for salsa events in UK and abroad. Students love her clear teaching methods and the personal attention that she gives all her students.

Colleen is known in the Salsa community as one of the UKs leading females. Her shows have been highly acclaimed across Europe and further afield.

Colleen's a Co-Director/Choreographer/Performer of Portrait Dance Company. Colleen also successfully ran her own performance teams for many years. The innovative choreographies go further to demonstrate her abilities as a choreographer. Colleen's current team SHeANGO Dance Co' show her continued development, creativity and motivation are not slowing down.

You need only watch Colleen in action to see her unbridled enthusiasm and passion for dance. Her boundless energy and effortless grace and style are an inspiration to those around her.

She has now taken another step with " Salsa Dance Central."

- Using her skills and the knowledge she has gained throughout the years to build a teaching syllabus and teacher training programme to deliver classes and dance experience that will bring out the best dancer in participants.
